1. The "Technologisches Institut für Kautschukverarbeitung" (T.I. for Caoutchouc Processing), Berlin-Weissensee, was not affected by the recent dismantlings. The institute has the following tasks: Development of formulas for the processing of rubber (Buna) and methods for production, including exact description of the machines and apparatus used. The institute receives individual orders from an office in Moscow, which so far concerned the following:

Production of rubber heels and soles
 Production of rubber hoses and rubber-coated hoses
 Production of rubber tanks for planes
 Production of rubber mixtures for cable insulations.

2. The following personnel employed in the laboratories which are located in the former rubber factory C. Müller, Weissensee:

5 Chemists
 2 Engineers
 10 Technical draftsmen
 20 Specialists.

3. The institute is under the direction of Dr. Reiner (Hungarian national) and Dr. Schäffer (Austrian national).
